Trustee’s Fees

Stifel Trust Company, N.A. (“Stifel Trust”) is authorized to charge fees for its services per its published schedule of fees in effect at the time services are rendered. These fees shall not be diminished by any other fees paid to any affiliates of Stifel Trust for services rendered.

No Review of Prior Trustee’s Actions

No successor trustee hereunder shall have any duty or responsibility to audit or review the actions or accounting of its predecessor trustees and each successor Trustee hereunder is expressly relieved from any and all liability or responsibility for the actions or failure of any such predecessor.

Resignation of Trustee

A trustee may resign upon at least 30 days’ notice to the Current Beneficiaries of the trust. “Current Beneficiaries” means a beneficiary who is currently eligible to receive distributions of trust income, whether mandatory or discretionary. If the terms of this document do not provide for another method of naming a successor trustee, and there is then a vacancy in the office of trustee, the majority of the Current Beneficiaries may appoint the next trustee, who cannot be a Current Beneficiary or someone related to a Current Beneficiary. A legally disabled Current Beneficiary may be represented by that beneficiary’s conservator or parent.

Small Trust Termination

The trustee after giving notice to the current income beneficiaries and the beneficiaries who would be current income beneficiaries when the current income beneficiaries’ interests terminate may terminate the trust if the trustee concludes that the value of the trust property is insufficient to justify the cost of administration. Upon termination of a trust under this provision, the trustee shall distribute the trust property in a manner consistent with the purposes of the trust.
